

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, Nov. 5.—The funeral of ex-District Attorney Francis F. Drake took place at the Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. William Hill. The remains were taken to Troy, Pa., for interment. The Wyoming County Bar association attended the funeral in a body. Joseph Lott, of Washington, D. C., is spending a short vacation at his old home in this place. The return judges will sit today at noon to compute the official returns of the election. The county officers chosen at the election on Tuesday were all candidates on the Republican ticket. The following are the names of the successful ones: Representative, Stanley R. Brunner; sheriff, Edward S. Hinds; register and recorder, Daniel Decker; prothonotary, Frank Major; county commissioners, Horace W. Rozelle, G. Elmer Detrick and Edward W. Farrer; county auditors, James L. Vase, Frank T. Knapp and Frank Osborne; farmer and Osborne are the Democratic members of the commissioners and auditors' boards. The Republican candidates had paraded all the way from 65 to 155. Miss Hannah Loback, of Scranton, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Marie Loback Frear, on Second street. Mrs. Samuel Eisenbach was a visitor at Wilkes-Barre, on Tuesday. Harry Welch and family, of Sayre, who have been visiting the former's father, Joseph Welch, returned to their home on Tuesday. Miss Nellie Boyce left on Wednesday for New York city, where she will be the guest of relatives for about two weeks. Mrs. Bell, of Scranton, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. Scott Hollenauer, on Third street. Harry Kittredge, a student at State college, came home to vote on Tuesday, and visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Kittredge, on Susquehanna avenue.

AVOCA.

Patrick Reap, employed as a miner at the Sparrowville colliery, sustained a compound fracture of the leg yesterday afternoon. He was on his way home when a miner asked him to assist him in placing a car on the track. While doing so, a prop gave way, and a great quantity of coal came with it. They all escaped except Reap. He was removed to the home of his mother, where Dr. Price attended to him. The funeral of Miss Susan Hinchcliff took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her parents, on the West Side. There were many friends present from this and surrounding towns. The remains were encased in a handsome steel-colored casket. There were many beautiful floral emblems from sympathetic friends. Rev. James Moore preached the sermon. He chose no text, but dwelt on the many lessons that might be learned from the circumstances with which we are surrounded. The pall bearers were John Williams, Roy Shales, Andrew Mitchell, William Joseph Intenmet, was made in the Hartwood cemetery. Mrs. John Devers is seriously ill of appendicitis. John Mitchell, postmaster at Dupont, is critically ill of typhoid fever. Charles Druffner returned to Baltimore yesterday morning. Frank Clark will leave for Philadelphia today. The funeral of Charles, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John McCarthy, took place yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery. Joseph O'Brien is suffering from a badly sprained leg, caused by playing football. Dr. Berge is able to be about again, after undergoing an operation for appendicitis. Night school will open in No. 1 building next Monday evening. The teachers are Misses Winifred King and Mary Reap. A foreigner employed at the Langcliffe mines was seriously injured by a fall of rock on Tuesday morning. He

BLOCKADED

The Back Aches Because the Kidneys Are Blocked.

The back aches because the kidneys are blocked. Help the kidneys with their work. The back will ache no more. Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this. It's the best proof, for it comes from Scranton. Mr. Frederick Davis, of 505 Summer avenue, engineer at the Lackawanna Iron & Steel Co., says: "For two years there was a gnawing pain across my back, which bothered me at night more than at any other time. I had to lie in just such a position in order to take any comfort or enjoy my night's rest. If I was not careful in turning over, sharp twinges would catch me in the back and disturb my rest, so that I got up in the morning tired and with my back so lame and sore that I could hardly move about. The secretions from the kidneys were highly colored and contained sediment. One of the men at the works recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me, saying they had helped his father when everything else had failed. I sent to Matthews Bros.' drug store and got two boxes. Gradually the pain in my back began to leave me and when I had used the two boxes it disappeared completely. For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute."

tons while on their way home to exercise the rights of citizens called at the Academy Saturday and Sunday. George Farnsworth visited his uncle at Taylor, on Sunday, where he also preached in the evening. We will be glad to welcome Mr. Kelleher, the first winner of the educational contest in our ranks as a student at the opening of the second quarter, Nov. 17. Professor Hulley preached at Clark's Green again on Sunday last. Mrs. Kelleher, of Montgomery, Pa., has taken rooms in the ladies' hall, and will hereafter make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Elkanah Hulley. Professor H. Loren Fasset, wife and little daughter, Genevieve, who have been sojourning at the home of Mrs. Fasset's parents, have again taken up their abode in the Keystone cottage. The Keystone Girls' Basketball team completely overwhipped the girls of East Stroudsburg Normal on Saturday last. It was a complete surprise, as our girls had never played in a game before. Their excellent team work easily made the score 26 to 3. The football team did not fare so well at the basket ball team. Being braced by a score of 100 to 0 practiced during the week was thought unnecessary, consequently the ball was repeatedly fumbled, and this caused the first scare of the season against the hitherto invincible team. The Hillman boys are again mainly the fellows and it is gratifying to play with such men. The home team easily outplayed the Wilkes-Barreans, but fumbling at critical times is what made the score a tie. The last half was shortened on account of darkness. On Saturday next the second game with the Scranton high school will be played on the Academy grounds.

THEATRICAL.

Huntley-Moore Stock Company. At the Academy of Music last evening the Huntley-Moore Stock company presented one of Charles Frohman's greatest efforts, "The Elephant at the Circus." The play was a crowd-pleaser. H. H. Huntley as Reuben Warner and Maybelle Moore as Margaret Knowlton sustained the leading parts. In an excellent manner, the comic effects were admirably done. "Davy Crockett" was produced to a large audience. Last afternoon the famous play, "The New Dominion," will be repeated, although it failed to see it Monday night should not fail to embrace this the last opportunity of seeing it in this engagement. Tonight the play is "Rosencrantz."

The Elephants at the Dixie.

Those elephants at the Dixie are the most interesting visitors Scranton has had for some time. It is difficult to imagine an elephant as a pet, but these huge creatures whom Mr. Lockhart has trained are really much like children and are especially so in their fondness for sweets—both sweet words and sugar. Their love for approbation is remarkable and they are very much to be pitied as to hide, they are extremely sensitive as to reproach and disgrace. Mr. Lockhart has been their only trainer. He has used anything but kindness and they do not know what physical pain is at his hands. Perhaps nothing on the bill at the Dixie this week is more in favor than Mr. Tomlin's impromptu. His versatility is exceptional and the touch of pathos in the Italian sketch amounts to genius. It was studied from the Italian scene and was in his employ for years and is true to the life. The Dixie Theater company entire will play at Pittston tonight while the Masonic meeting occupies the theater. The houses have been large this week.

William Faversham Tomorrow Night

The latest play by H. V. Esmond, the English dramatist, is entitled "Imprudence." It will be presented for the first time on any stage at the Lyceum tomorrow (Friday) night, the engagement continuing for Saturday matinee and night. Mr. Charles Williams with William Faversham in the leading role. This will be Mr. Faversham's second starring season under the management of Mr. Frohman who has given him what is probably the strongest supporting company that has ever surrounded an actor. Mr. Esmond is a delightful writer and his plays are always full of interest with a charming love story. He is already famed as the author of "When We Were Two-One" and "The Wilderness." The cast of characters is as follows: Jack Ferns, William Faversham; Sir Harry Harmon, Charles Harbury; Jim Greaves, Richard Bennett; Mr. Munckton, W. H. Thompson; Captain Becher, Julian L. Estroff; Mr. Raddles, Joseph Francor; Hugson, Wallace Eslinger; Ford, Butler; Herbert, Edward Jenkins; footman, J. C. Redding; Mrs. Jim Greaves, Jefferys Lewis; Lady Duncan, Hilda Spang; Mrs. Herring, Mrs. George Dixon; Lady Rook, Mrs. Annie Adams; Lady Fairlight, Mrs. Sol Smith; Miss Perrott, Helen Lowell; Fiddling, Helen Douglas; Fowler, Caroline Starbuck; Miss Wilhelmina Marr, Fay Davis.

A Notable Event.

Among the most interesting events of the season is the appearance of Lyman H. Howe with his new moving pictures. The splendid achievement of the show is largely due to the fact that the founder and promoter has always presented a range of subjects broad enough for all people. The splendid reproductions of real events of interest is a means of education and delightful entertainment enjoyed by thousands of people yearly throughout the many cities he visits. His new programme of unusually brilliant and entertaining subjects will be presented at the High School Auditorium on Thursday, Nov. 6.

"Not Guilty" at Academy.

Playgoers will have an opportunity to indulge their preference for the good, old fashioned melodrama next week for "Not Guilty." Joseph LeBrand's fine four-act play is billed at the Academy of Music for three days beginning with a special matinee Monday afternoon. During its initial run last season, this play was cordially received wherever presented, and it firmly established itself as a standard attraction at the houses that cater to melodramatic tastes. The company is composed of talented and seasoned players, and the various scenes afford excellent opportunity for sumptuous mounting.

"Miss New York Jr."

Miss New York Jr., the standard of all burlesque attractions, is announced to appear at the Star today. This organization is under the sole management of Joe Oppenheimer, whose reputation as a producer of clean and wholesome entertainments is widely known. The festivity opens with a laughable skit called "30 Minutes at Sea," which has the sole purpose of making you forget your troubles; a pretty chorus of young ladies, handsomely costumed will introduce beautiful dances and the very latest in operatic and popular songs. Miss Minnie Graybill, "The Canadian Song Bird," opens the olio by contributing a few selections as only this great entertainer can render same. Marion and Pearl, acrobatic comedienne, will then hold your attention, proving easily that they are top notchers in their profession. The next act on this long and well selected programme are Pico and the two rapid fire comedians of unusual merit; Professor Laurence Crane, the man from the old world, will also hold your attention; he mystifies his audience by the latest feats in magic; his performance alone is worth the price of admission. The fun concludes with a jolly bit of tom-toddy entitled "Fun on the Twentieth Century Limited." Miss New York, Jr. will hold the board at the Star the balance of the week, giving the usual matinees.
